Promises Make Friends

But 'Tis Performance That Keeps Them.

Broad indeed are the promises made by this store and they never go into print until after the most careful consideration of this vital question: Will the goods and prices bear out our statement to the minutest detail. This "ad." is to call your attention to the good things in UNDERWEAR and that you will need such soon we feel safe in predicting.

PASSENGERS coming down on the day train, No. 22, due here at 2:17, will have to drive to Lancaster and other points on the Kentucky Central, as the mixed train does not wait at Rowland for that train under the new schedule.

A GREAT many compliments have been passed on the new dress of the INTERIOR JOURNAL, which would have turned the head of a younger female. It makes her proud of course, and as a matter of fact she feels that the good words are deserved, but when one gets to be 33 she is not so susceptible to compliments and flattery as some 16 years before.

A GOOD crowd attended the horse show at Hustonville Saturday and some splendid horses were exhibited. The day was pretty and the well-cared for animals were in the very pink of condition. Following is a list of the stallions shown: D. S. Carpenter's Dignity Dare, with four of his get; The Warfield, driven by his owner, R. C. Engleman, Jr.; Duke of Richmond, R. S. Scudder's sorrel; Vidette Dare, shown in harness by L. Cole Dunn; Jake, J. A. Wright's well-known breeder; Naboth, Jr., J. R. Beasley's pride; Baughman's Naboth and Jesse Alverson, two of J. K. Baughman's string of stallions; Dare All, C. C. Carpenter's handsome three-year-old by Dignity Dare; Redmont, E. S. Powell's beautiful bay by the same sire, and Dixie, the pretty Shetland pony of Charlie Nunnelley. The crowd was disappointed that W. M. Dodd's Galton and E. P. Carpenter's Prospect were not on "parade." The former showed a magnificent son of Galton, which was the subject of much favorable comment.

Jake's 1st dam Flora, a very fast saddle and road mare. Her 1st dam by Billy Carpenter and he by Brand's Messenger and he by Hambletonian 10 and her sire untraced. Jake traces as you will see by his pedigree back direct to Hambletonian 10 on both sire and dam. Jake will make the season of 1905 at my place, 1 mile North of Hustonville on the Danville pike. Terms $25 to insure a living colt. We have on hand colts from sucklings to six-years-old that we will take pleasure in showing any one, so they can judge for themselves how the horse breeds.

HENRY CLAY.

Henry Clay sired by Black Cloud and he by Wm. Burke's noted Jack, Tom Kene, will make the season on same terms $25 to insure a living colt. J. A. WRIGHT, Hustonville, Ky.

STRANGE ADVICE!

AN UNUSUAL CONTRACEPTIVE GERMAN SYRUP FOR THE CURE OF COUGHS, COLDS, THROAT AND LUNG TROUBLES OR CONSUMPTION. We have told them if they did not receive any special benefit after the use of one 75-cent size bottle of German Syrup, to consult their doctor. We did not ask them or urge them to use a large number of bottles, as is the case in the advertising of many other remedies. Our confidence in German Syrup makes it possible for us to give such advice. We know by the experience of over 35 years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. New trial bottles, 25c.; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

For Sale at Penny's Drug Store.
